5-Day BIBLE Reading Plan

SEP. 2026 – SEP. 2027

How the Plan Works

Our Old Testament readings are placed as close to chronological order as possible. Even the Psalms are set into Israel's story where they best fit, and this is why some prophets—like Jeremiah—may feel a little “out of order.” The one exception is Job. While it may be the oldest book in the Bible, we've placed it near the end of the schedule because it's hard to fit neatly anywhere else. In the New Testament, the Gospels are spaced throughout the year so that we keep returning again and again to the life and teaching of Jesus.

How to Read

- Always follow the order the readings appear in the schedule. For example, if a passage from Chronicles comes before Kings, read Chronicles first.
- Use the weekly checkboxes to track your progress—mark off each day's reading and then mark the week when it's complete.

Why This Matters

You'll be surprised how quickly the year moves along and how steady reading adds up. Many in our church have reached their goal of regular Bible reading using this schedule, and we believe you can too. God's blessing rests on those who read, understand, and live by His Word. Our prayer is that this plan will help you love the Scriptures more deeply and see how God's story unfolds from beginning to end.

“Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path.” — Psalm 119:105
